Sigal Chattah Releases Statement on Reid / Masto Donor Tisha Black Entering GOP Primary for Nevada Attorney General

Las Vegas, NV – “I welcome any opponent to the GOP primary, but Tisha Black is a progressive plant who maxes out donations to radical left politicians like Harry Reid and Catherine Cortez Masto. By funding Nevada’s most radical Democrats over the years, Tisha Black has not only helped defeat Republicans at the ballot box, she has literally built and advanced the Democrats’ disastrous government-controlled trifecta we live under in our state and our nation. I think Tisha Black is in the wrong Party’s primary and she should take her issues up with Aaron Ford, Steve Sisolak, and be honest with our motivated, conservative base about her partisan liberal ideology.” – Conservative Republican candidate for Nevada Attorney General, Sigal Chattah.

Meet Sigal

Sigal already beat Governor Sisolak and his lawyer, Attorney General Aaron Ford, in court TWICE:

- Sigal represented Calvary Church in Las Vegas pro-bono and winning at the 9th Circuit reopening places of worship from Sisolak's draconian shutdown just in time for Christmas.
- Sigal beat Sisolak and Ford again in court after his vaccine rollout prioritized special interests and those with money, power, and status over the elderly successfully lowering the age of prioritization down to 65+.

Sigal is suing over the hypocritical double-standard mask mandate currently imposed on us and on our school children. She is a woman of action, a practitioner of the law, and a defender of our Constitutional Liberties.

Sigal is the fighter we need.

Sigal is a:

- Proud Israeli-American Immigrant;
- Defender of the American Dream;
- Champion of Law Enforcement;
- Practitioner of the Law;
- Protector of the Constitution;
- Strong Single Mother;
- Believer in Life, Liberty, and the Pursuit of Happiness.

Sigal Chattah's Biography:

Born in Israel in 1975, Sigal immigrated to Nevada with her family when she was 14 years old. Sigal's father is a retired developer and her mother is a retired registered nurse. Sigal graduated from Valley High School in Las Vegas in 1993 and attended the University of Nevada Las Vegas graduating in 1997, with a bachelor's degree in political science with an emphasis on Middle Eastern Politics. She attended Widener University School of Law in Harrisburg, PA.

Upon her return to Nevada after graduating, Sigal started her own Las Vegas law firm in 2002 and has since then combined her love for the law, zealous constitutional advocacy and extensive pro bono work in the furtherance of justice for all people.

Recently, Sigal saw the injustice and unscientific standards being leveled against our religious community in Nevada and fought back against Governor Sisolak. Sigal challenged Governor Sisolak's unconstitutional orders and in Calvary Chapel Lone Mountain v Sisolak and prevailed in the 9th Circuit United States Court of Appeals, forcing Governor Sisolak to allow places of worship to have the same capacities as other businesses.

Sigal has continued to fight when Governor Sisolak has failed Nevadans. With the slow rollout of the COVID-19 vaccine and exclusion of senior citizens as a preferential group to have access to vaccines, Sigal sued the governor in a class-action lawsuit demanding that senior citizens have access to vaccinations as a preferential and vulnerable population. Thanks to Sigal's class-action lawsuit, on behalf of a group of senior citizens, Nevada's vaccine rollout sped up tremendously and Governor Sisolak was forced to reduce the age limit for access to vaccines as a prioritized group to 65+.

Sigal is no stranger to championing Nevadans when they are in need, including representing many families during the real estate crisis brought on by the Great Recession. She has served as a Planning Commissioner and on the Southern Nevada Disciplinary Board of the State Bar of Nevada.

Sigal's favorite quote is from the book of Deuteronomy "Justice, Justice you Shall Pursue" and she has dedicated her life to the pursuit of justice on behalf of all Nevadans. Sigal's passion, tenacity, and love for her community in pursuing justice and fighting corruption have never been a matter of philanthropy or charity, it has always been a sense of strict justice that all Nevadan's are entitled to. She demands that the rights of all people be protected because she has seen what happens when they're not. Sigal is a true woman of justice, she will be the Attorney General of the people. She will fight to protect Nevadans' rights as she has for two decades - all Nevadans, regardless of wealth, gender, race, religion, or creed.
